Happy Scrappers

Last month was HUGE. We had a large group. I think we all needed a mental hug by our being together. We had over 25 people and the food was UH TOO GOOD. If you ladies would do me a favor, and check the website and make sure that I have all the projects information correct. I can look at it a dozen times and still not see something. On to bee business.

1. This months meeting will be at the Sulfur Henning Methodist Key Hall. I believe we have been there before. It was the time that Jo Ann's husband smoked the chickens for us. The directions are on the website. Ill send hard copies to those that don't have email. Please keep these maps so that I don't have to reprint them. I seem to remember that One of the hostesses emailed me that they were providing Brisket. So bring side dishes to go with that. Meeting begins at 10 am. And we can bring our sewing machines to make it a sew day if you wish. See you there.

2. Please check the hostesses list. Make sure that I have those names on the correct month.

3. Decisions made on the UFO project. Here is the deal. This is how its going to work. Carolyn is keeping track of whose doing what each month. You should bring your completed GOAL for last month. (Of course I have not done mine yet). There is no ENTRY cost (the old idea was that we would put in 20 dollars to participate). Instead you will pay 5 dollars for each/every month that you DO NOT meet your goals. If you cant make it to the meeting. You should send Carolyn Slack a picture of the completed goal. And the next months goal. Any questions please contact Carolyn Slack.

4. The website is updated with the projects. My flower and star direction is on the website. I will have to make copies of the flower, (since it wont print the same size on everyone computer). Lydia's Log cabin is there, but you will have to contact her for the pattern. It's a paper pieced project that also will not print correctly.

5. Row Quilt is due next month, (At Dry creek).

6. The Happy Scrappers will be the door greeters and the holders for the Guild Meeting. Please be there a little early.
