Happy Scrappers

This months meeting is hosted by Laura, Ruby, and Sue. They are feeding us King Ranch Casserole, Guacamole, chips, salad and dessert. Please RSVP to LAURA STELLY. The Meeting starts at 10;30. Address and directions will be in a separate attachment. THIS IS NOT A SEW DAY. Now for Bee Business.

1. It was requested that I post the address for the facility that Nishi is in. FYI her birthday is Sept 6. 4195 Milam st, Beaumont Texas. 77707. ATT. Nishi Thomas.

2. We are going to try to finish the Santa quilt (for auction) at the Palestine retreat.

3. The date has changed for the project this year called FINISH A SCRAPPER PROJECT. Carolyn suggested that we move it to Nov. YEA CAROLYN.

4. Remember that Lydia is keeping track of those attending meetings and Projects that you have finished for the year.

5. Carol Taylor suggested that we go back to scrappy projects for 2013. And we need to figure out a way to hold people to participation. If we sign up to do a project, we should be committed to doing them. It's a lot of work for the hostess of the project to get us instructions. (IM GUILTY) Hopefully you are looking for 2013 projects to submit to the group.

Hostesses:

Oct. Mickey and Joyce Saia

Nov. Tammy, Gloria and Laurell

Dec. PJ Broussard

See yall at the meeting.
